4 Beneficiary designation

Complete this section to designate a beneficiary for your account. In the absence of a beneficiary designation, and if not payable to your spouse as prescribed by law, death benefits will be paid to your estate.

Caution in all provinces except Quebec: Your designation of a beneficiary will not be changed or revoked automatically by any future marriage or divorce. Should you wish to change or revoke your beneficiary in the event of a future marriage or divorce, you have to make a new designation. In Quebec, a divorce granted after December 1st, 1982 cancels the beneficiary designation of the married spouse. In Quebec if you name more than one beneficiary and give them unequal shares of the benefit and one of them dies, the deceased beneficiary's share will default to contingent beneficiary or estate rather than being divided amongst the other beneficiaries.

Note: To appoint a trustee for a beneficiary who is a minor, please complete the 'Appointment of trustee for a minor beneficiary' form. In Quebec, any amount payable to a minor beneficiary during his/her minority will be paid to the parent(s) or legal guardian on his/her behalf.

I revoke any previous beneficiary designations and name as beneficiary for benefits due on my death:

Where Quebec law applies, a married or civil union spouse beneficiary is irrevocable unless you indicate otherwise. To avoid this restriction and make your legal spouse designation revocable, you must check the revocable box above.

If your beneficiary is irrevocable, you may not change your beneficiary designation and may not be able to withdraw/transfer your assets out of the plan unless you provide Sun Life with the irrevocable beneficiary's written consent.

5 Contingent beneficiary appointment

Complete this section to appoint a contingent (secondary) beneficiary for your account.

If there is no surviving beneficiary at the time of my death, I declare that the following contingent beneficiary shall receive all benefits due on my death in accordance with any applicable legislation. If there is no surviving contingent beneficiary at the time of my death, the proceeds shall be paid to my estate.
